3. City of Calgary, Alderman and administration: Inform and consult to move to project forward – face-to-face meetings	June 2012 tour of Sundial August 2012 to April 2013 (Deferred further discussions until after the election)	Gael MacLeod Debbie Newman Andy Lockhart Judy Hoad	Elected officials oppose the SRO model but expressed some support for affordable housing and requested the DI provide a business plan for the entire site. Ald. MacLeod supported the formation of the Liaison Committee and participated in meetings.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>New City Councillor</li> </ul>	November 2013	Sean Chu Debbie Newman Andy Lockhart	Councillor Chu does not support the SRO model.
4. Province, MLA: Inform and consult to move project forward – phone calls and face-to-face meetings	Throughout process June 2012 to January 2014	Kyle Fawcett Mike Leathwood Debbie Newman Andy Lockhart	The local MLA is opposed to the proposed use. There has been ongoing discussion regarding the terms of the initial agreement to provide 46 affordable housing units on the site and the definitions of affordable housing and dwelling units, both from the provincial perspective and The City. There is a lack of clarity on whether the SRO model is affordable housing, and whether assisted living is housing/affordable housing. The agreed upon definition influences how the building will be operated and the development of the remaining parcel (parking lot).
